

I Live My Life For You

I Live My Life For You, And the love you give just keeps me holding on Every time I turn, you're there – I see you everywhere

It doesn't seem so hard, because it's true

That I live my life for you

And when the morning comes

Every breath you take's a reason to believe

The sunlight on your hair

The beauty God has shed – it must be

There's an angel here with me

She's all I'll ever need

Feeling like I'm soaring through the air

Higher than I've ever been

Living life as though I'm living out a dream

Finding love in heaven here with me

And when the morning comes

Every breath you take's a reason to believe

The sunlight on your hair

The beauty God has shed – it must be

There's an angel here with me

She's all I'll ever need

Delight comes soaring through the air

Higher than I've ever been

Living life as though I'm living out a dream

Finding love in heaven here with me
